

NOTICE OF RACE

CHNYC Winslow Cup NOR (2005).doc

5. SCHEDULE: The regatta is divided into two one-design classes, Rhodes 19 and Shields to optimize racing. All boats will rendezvous West of Coasters Harbor Island in the vicinity of R14 (Bishop's Rock). Each race course and the number of races will be determined by the Race Committee based on weather conditions. It is the intent of the organizing authority to conduct a minimum of three races.

Day/Date	Time	Function
Wednesday, 3 August 2004	1800	Pre-registration deadline
Saturday, 6 August 2004	0800-1000	Registration completion
	1200	Harbor start
	1300	First signal, Shields class
	1315	First signal, Rhodes 19 class
	1730-2000	Awards presentation & party

6. REGISTRATION

- 6.1. The official entry form shall be used. A check payable to CHNYC should accompany the entry form.
- 6.2. Competitors may pre-register by completing the entry form and emailing it to the Regatta Chairman at charles.swicker@navy.mil.
- 6.3. Competitors shall hand all entry forms, completed waivers and entry fee payments to the Regatta Chairman no later than 1000 on race day.
- 6.4. Competitors sailing Navy-owned boats will be assigned boats by the appropriate Fleet Captain. No rotations are planned once boat assignments are made for the duration of the regatta.

7. SAILING INSTRUCTIONS – Sailing Instructions will be posted on the CHNYC WEB site in draft form by 15 July 2005 and will available in final form on 4 August 2005.

- 7.1. SCORING: This regatta will be scored in accordance with the Low Point Scoring System.

8. PRIZES

- 8.1. For both classes, prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places at the CHNYC cookout/awards ceremony across from the Officer's Club at Naval Station, Newport, RI.

9. SAFETY & SECURITY INFORMATION

- 9.1. Races may be cancelled, postponed, or abandoned by the Race Committee due to weather conditions or other safety concerns.
- 9.2. A boat retiring from a race shall notify a Race Committee vessel before leaving the course, or, when that is impossible, the Marina Office at 841-3283 immediately after arrival ashore.
- 9.3. Competitors are reminded that Narragansett Bay is a restricted channel and sailing vessels do not have right-of-way over a vessel which may be restricted in her ability to maneuver.
- 9.4. Naval Station Newport has established a restricted area in the navigable waters adjacent to and surrounding Coasters Harbor Island. Additionally, an exclusion area is established in Coddington Cove. These are marked by white buoys. These exclusion/restricted areas rank as obstructions and boats shall not enter these areas. Vessels approaching or entering these areas may be hailed, stopped or boarded by law enforcement or military vessels. These security measures will not be grounds for redress under RRS 62.

YACHT NAME _____

The undersigned intends to participate in sailing races and other related events sponsored or supported by Coasters Harbor Navy Yacht Club, Inc. ("CHNYC"), Naval Station Newport, participating yacht clubs, host sites and any other subsequent sponsors. For good and valuable consideration, including being permitted to participate in the Winslow Cup, the undersigned for myself, successors, heirs and assigns hereby waives, releases and discharges any claims, causes of action or any type of demand whatsoever against, participating yacht clubs (to include Naval Station Newport), their respective officers, directors, agents, volunteers, or employees, that the undersigned may have or in the future may have against CHNYC, participating yacht clubs, their respective officers, directors, agents, volunteers, or employees, for any bodily injury or death suffered by the undersigned or for any damage to any boat or other property arising out of my involvement in The Winslow Cup, or training therefore, and any other related activities sponsored by CHNYC, participating yacht clubs, in connection with the conduct and organization of The Winslow Cup. I am in good health and have no physical condition that would prevent me from participating in this event.

The undersigned acknowledges that participation in the sport of sailing or in this regatta involves substantial risk of personal injury or even death, and the undersigned hereby assumes the risk of any such injury to his or her body arising while practicing for or participating in said The Winslow Cup, and forever gives up and relinquishes any claim for liability against CHNYC, participating yacht clubs, their respective officers, directors, agents, volunteers, or employees, that I may have by reason of participating in the above event.

This release is also being executed by me in accordance with Section 7-6-9 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, which is set forth in full on the reverse side and made part hereof, and I acknowledge that I have read and understood the statute.

The undersigned, as consideration for CHNYC's permission for me to participate in this Regatta, hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless CHNYC for any damage which the undersigned, his boat, or his crew may cause to any CHNYC or Naval Station Newport boats or equipment, whether owned outright by them, or leased or borrowed for purposes of this event.

In consideration of this entry being accepted, I hereby for myself, heirs, executors, administrators, waive and release any and all right and claim for damages I may have against the R.I. Department of Environmental Management, the State of Rhode Island, their agents, representatives, successors and assigns for any and all injuries suffered by me at said event or while traveling to or returning there from save those proximately caused by the willful tortuous acts of the state, its agents, servants and its employees, I agree to permit the full use of my name and picture in any broadcast, telecast and other accounts of this event.

This document may have serious consequences in the event of any injury to the undersigned, and one should feel free to consult a lawyer concerning its implications before signing the release. I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE FOREGOING RELEASE.

General Laws of Rhode Island Section 7-6-9 Exemption From Liability

A) No person serving without compensation as a volunteer, director, officer or trustee of a non-profit corporation, including a corporation qualified as a tax-exempt corporation under 501(c) of the United States Internal Revenue Code [26 U.S.C. 501(c)], or of an unincorporated nonprofit organization or an unincorporated public charitable institution qualified as a tax-exempt organization under section 501(c) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, shall be liable to any person based solely on his or her conduct in the execution of such office or duty unless the conduct of such director, officer, trustee, or volunteer with respect to the person asserting such liability constituted malicious, willful or wanton misconduct. As used in this section, "compensation" does not include a per diem or per meeting allowance, health insurance benefits or reimbursement for out of pocket costs and expenses incurred in such service. Nothing herein shall be construed to exempt a volunteer from liability based upon his or her ownership and/or operation of a motor vehicle.

(B) Officers, directors, agents, servants, volunteers, and employees of a corporation shall not be liable for bodily injury to any person incurred while such person is practicing for, or participating in, any contest or exhibition of an athletic or sports nature sponsored by the corporation; provided such person has, or in the case of a minor, a parent or guardian of such minor has, signed a written waiver of liability of the corporation and acknowledgment of assumption of risk with respect to such practicing for, or participating in, any contest or exhibition of an athletic or sports nature sponsored by the corporation.
